International Conference on Resilient Systems

ICRS 2026 Delft, the Netherlands, 23-25 March, 2026

<https://www.4tu.nl/resilience/icrs26> (icrs26.org to be launched January 2025)

INTRODUCTION TO THE TRACK

<< Provide a descriptive introduction to the track, 10-20 lines. Please give a motivation for the track, its relation to the conference and be clear on your aims and objectives in running it. >>

We expect that track chairs will attend the conference, and of course, also publish the call for tracks on our conference website.

TRACK TOPICS

<< List and describe a number of topics and/or types of contributions (e.g., presentations, posters, possible track-based keynote speaker) that sessions for this track could cover. Try to include a theme or topic related to the conference's scope.

- Topic 1

- Topic 2

- Topic 3

... - Topic N >>

TYPE OF CONTRIBUTIONS:

<< are you planning to accept abstracts, full papers, or both for the proceedings? >>

<< and what will be the format of the contributions? Traditional presentations session or a debate or the showcasing of tools? >>

AUTHORS

<< Provide a description of the network that would be involved in your track, including how to attract the potential authors >>

REVIEWER BOARD

<< Indicate at least 3 (to 5) external reviewers that agree to be involved in the review process, and plan to recruit more reviewers, if needed. Please include the first name and surname, and affiliation >>

TRACK CHAIR AND CO-CHAIR

<< Describe the previous experience of each of the proposed co-chairs with running tracks at similar international meetings, and any other qualifications for this responsibility, such as recent papers on the topic you propose. In addition, you should note which co-chairs plan to be at the conference to contribute to the session(s) that might be connected with your track, such as publish the call for tracks on our conference website and co-hosting the track. >>

SUBMISSION DETAILS FOR TRACKS

- Proposals for tracks may include different types of sessions such as full or early-stage research paper sessions, debates, policy dialogue sessions and/or a mixture of these.
- Tracks: a series of 1-3 sessions under one thematic umbrella with coherent or different forms of interaction.
- Those selected for the conference will be asked to provide guidance for participants applying through the conference 'Call for Papers', and then support the conference organisers and the international scientific committee in reviewing the papers and organising their track or special session.
- We would like to emphasise that tracks/sessions with external guests must definitely be planned and clarified very early in order to have any chance of being held at all. In our experience, appointments with guests cannot be made at short notice. Only proposals with clear information about guests seem plausible to us.

Please, submit your proposal page by 31 January 2025 at the latest. Organisers will be notified of the acceptance of their proposals prior to the opening of the Call for Papers.

If you need help with proposal submission, please, contact s.j.hessing@utwente.nl
